Why not make a day of it!

Take public transport and have coffee/brunch at one of the many St Kilda Road cafes. You could meet up at Kettle Black. Have you tried their cronuts or the ricotta hotcakes!!

After your walk-in session, head up to the NGV to view the Terracotta Warriors.

You could also visit the quirky South Melbourne Market – Wednesday, Friday, Saturday and Sunday.

The Chef's Hat is nearby. We are grateful to them for supplying our reusable water bottles – helping our environment in a big way!

Or have lunch nearby at the Blackman restaurants. If not taking public transport you could car pool - $14 a day parking at the venue.

Fleur Depot De Pain is known for its decadent pastries and seasonal French dishes.

Classico offers typically Italian fare – from pizzas to delicious egg pastas.
