

What is the relationship between Bridge Victoria and the club now known as the Victorian Bridge Centre?

Bridge Victoria is a registered business name of VBA Ltd. State operations are now managed under this business name, with an elected management committee representing clubs across Victoria.

The Victorian Bridge Centre is also a registered business name of VBA Ltd. This club operates independently with a management committee nominated from club members.

There is separate accounting, and separation of roles and responsibilities. There are some shared services, such as book-keeping and accounting services.